

Costasys Computer Services

Description:

For all kinds of computer services throughout the coast and inland Costa del Sol call Costasys.

We offer the supply and installation of FREE Anti Virus for home users call for more information.

Whether you are a home or business user you can have confidence as all work is carried out by a Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer with many years experience in all aspects of computer installation, administration and repair.

We can help you whatever your needs, from a single computer to a small and medium business with one or more offices and several computers or servers.

We provide backup strategies, security services anti virus detection and removal, firewall installation and management, ADSL & wireless installation, new office installations, change of language on computers or laptops, supply and installation of computer software and hardware. Fault finding and repair.

We offer monthly maintenance contracts for both home and office users to help to ensure the smooth operation of the computer system and address any problems or errors that may occur. The service also includes the checking of system performance, removal of unnecessary information, confirming the Anti Virus software is functioning and is up to date and cleaning the internal components on a regular basis.

Country: Malaga

City:

Website: <http://www.costasys.com>